Five year old Kenny had lost his first tooth in the middle of the night. The next morning his parents told him tales about how the Tooth Fairy would come and leave behind a surprise. At first he was excited about this prospect but as time went on his excitement slowly began to turn to terror. Who was this tooth fairy? What did she want with his tooth? Why was everyone else afraid of her?

Please note that this is a short story at 9,000 words.
